The Dakar Rally is definitely the single most extraordinary race of its category in the world. The race started in 1979 as a race from Paris to Dakar but in 2009 it was relocated to South America.

To run the toughest Rally in the world on a different continent was quite a challenging adventure for everyone, and in January 2010 it became a reality and the Dakar Rally took off from Buenos Aires, Argentina. Due to the massive success of the race in its new location it will again be run in South America in 2011 and SAMt will follow it again!

South America Motorbike Tours (SAMt), a company which is based in Chile and specializes in motorbike tours in Latin America, will accompany the Dakar 2011. A once in a lifetime opportunity which departs from the heart of the driest desert in the world, the Atacama desert. From there we will follow the race across the desert continuing via the coast of the Pacific Ocean to finish in Santiago.

This time we spiced the tour up with more first class accommodation in 4 locations of the Desert – booked just for SAMt group and a full navigation day in the pacific.

One day private excursion by boat on the Pacific Coast between Pisagua and Caleta Camarones where the desert plunges into the Ocean. Lunch on a private beach.

This unique experience will take us through some of the most dramatic landscapes in the world.
